

I will walk among you and be your God, and you will be my people. I am the Lord your God.
Leviticus Ch.26 v.12

Holy Father in this time of prayer lead us to empty our minds of distracting thoughts so we may draw close to you and experience your encompassing healing love and the joy and peace that only you can give.
In your name we ask
Amen

I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go. I will counsel you and watch over you.
Psalm 32 v. 8

Thank you loving Father for the wonder of your creation that surrounds us, the birds building nests, buds appearing on trees and bushes, the blossom and flowers reminding us of your constant unending love. We thank you for the many blessings we take for granted because we are so concerned about our own problems, heal us from negative thoughts and emotions so we may see your glory in all our surroundings.

In your mercy
Amen

That my heart may sing to you and not be silent. O Lord my God, I will give you thanks for ever.
Psalm 30 v. 12

Loving Father we pray for the ministry of all churches throughout the world and all who minister to others in your name, guide and lead them in their responsibilities. We hold in prayer Jeremy, Stephen and Peter and remember John Hinson who is at the present time studying to become a Reader. We pray for the ministry of Jackie Potton, Jane Findlay and David Wells, may we be united to serve you for the furtherance of your Kingdom.
In your name we ask
Amen

The fear of the Lord leads to life: Then one rests content, untouched by trouble.
Proverbs Ch. 19 v. 23

As we talk to you our listening Father, we remember members of our prayer link family at different stages of their lives. May those who live alone know your presence, those who are ill know your healing love and those who grieve know your comforting grace.
We hold in your presence the mothers, fathers, grandparents, and those starting their lives together. May we remember each other in prayer and bring our lives to you for your blessing.
In your name we ask
Amen

The glory of young men is their strength, grey hair the splendour of the old.
Proverbs Ch.20 v. 29

Father of all in this time of prayer we bring to you all the victims of war and suffering. We remember especially the homeless, the orphans, the bereaved parents and those who have lost hope. Only you Lord can bring peace amongst nations.

In your mercy Lord hear our prayer.

The Lord is good to all; he has compassion on all he has made.

Psalms 145 v. 9

Holy Father we pray for courage and strength to face each day. We pray for wisdom and patience when dealing with difficult situations.

We pray for love, compassion and empathy when speaking to those we meet in need. We pray that we will not be led into temptation and be delivered from evil. We pray that we will be guided by your still small voice in the storms of life, that we will be filled with joy in the knowledge of your constant unchanging love for us.

Thank you Holy Father

Amen
